

30th April 2017
Third Sunday of Easter
Holy Communion with Baptism

I believe in the Holy Spirit : the Spirit of truth

'When he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth.' John 16:13

Welcome to today's service!

'What is truth?', Pilate asked, scoffing at Jesus' claim that everyone on the side of truth listens to him.

In today's world there are many people who, like Pilate, prefer to hide away from the notion of absolute truth. In an age of relativism, 'fake news' and cheap soundbites, the concept of truth has all too often been absurdly reduced to something like 'what seems true to me right now'.

Jesus, though, could not be clearer. Not only is there such a thing as eternal, absolute truth, but it couldn't be more important for us - both for now and for all eternity - to discover it personally and to hold onto it as the guiding principle in our lives.

Truth, though, is not simply an abstract formula: it can't be reduced to the sort of 'grand theory of everything' that scientists like Stephen Hawking have devoted their lives to chasing after.

Truth is far more personal than that. Truth is a lived reality found only in God. It is only in God that we find the true context for our existence, and God has chosen to reveal himself definitively and uniquely in Jesus.

Because God has made us as people, we can only know truth when we know him personally through Jesus, and to enable us to come to know him personally in that way, he sends the Holy Spirit into our lives.

The Holy Spirit descended on Jesus at his baptism, and so it's especially fitting that we're thinking about the truth that the Spirit lead us into us as we celebrate Evelyn's baptism this morning with her parents Nicole and Sam.

Let's join them in praying that Evelyn will be guided into all truth, and let's pray the same for ourselves too.

James Kennedy (Vicar)

Pentecost praise

On Sunday June 4th, as a church, we will remember and celebrate Pentecost—the day when God sent the Holy Spirit to his people. To allow more time to delight in God's spirit, seek him together, and to pray for the gifts he promises through his Spirit we will be having a special evening service of praise and prayer, 7.30-9pm. It'll be relaxed, contemporary and informal so do come along if you would enjoy worshipping in this way. All across the Benefice are welcome! For more info ask Chris O Shea or Martha—martha.simpson@stmaryscnorton.com.

1st Priority Prayer—Churches Together (7.30pm, Wed 3rd May)

If you've not been before, come and take up your place in what fuels the life of the church.

Do you have an hour or so to spare this week?

Roger and Ursula would like to thank all those who helped clean the house so wonderfully and have welcomed them in all sorts of kind and very generous ways.
They are surrounded by boxes and wondered if there were any who could drop by for an hour or so between now and Thursday and help them get sorted by:
emptying boxes, sorting books, emulsionsing walls, putting up hooks and shelves, weeding, making curtains etc. Do contact them. Ursula: 07732 131250, Roger 07808 724494 . Many thanks!
