God Prepares: Exodus 2.1-25

We begin a series on Moses and the Exodus this term. We are going to look at how God calls a people to be his own, how he calls them out of slavery to live as his people, under his grace and keeping his commandments. He draws them into a life of freedom.

Welcome Was there anything in your upbringing that was a cross-cultural experience?

Word

A. Read Exodus 2.1-10

Why did Pharaoh's daughter risk taking in the Hebrew baby? Did she find Moses by accident? by human design? God's design? Why do you think so?

What would Moses gain by growing up in the 'royal household'? How might this be good or bad for Israel?

Have you ever felt love for someone that others oppress or neglect?

Can you think of unusual events that have shaped your place in God's purposes?

B. Read 2.11-24

In scene 1 (v11-14), how does the royal Moses identify with the oppressed Hebrews? Why do the Hebrews fail to identify with him? Why does Moses flee?

How does scene 2, (v15-25), relate to scene 1? How does this 'long period' (v23) in desolate Midian influence Moses' life? What character traits do scenes 1 & 2 bring out in Moses? How is God preparing Moses to be his deliverer?

Has God used a personal flaw or failure in you for his greater glory in your life?
